

Barbara Martin Spring Newsletter

Boy, oh, boy what a winter it's been! Two more inches of snow and we'll break a record set in 1888! I've been most blessed to have very few performance cancellations. The cancelled shows have been rescheduled for March and April. Despite the snow, ice and cold it's been a fun winter. A highlight was a performance for the Charlottesville Jazz Society in January with pianist Hod O'Brien and Bob Bowen. I was also delighted to receive the silver award for Vocal Jazz and Blues songwriting in the Mid Atlantic Song Contest for "Kaleidoscope", title cut from my latest CD and co-written with Greg Traftidlo. The new CD is coming to completion and should be out in a few months. It's all jazz and all original songs with fantastic performances from Washington, DC jazz greats Robert Redd on piano, Chuck Redd on drums and vibes, Steve Wolf on bass, Mac Walter on guitar, Bruce Swaim on saxophone and Charlottesville, VA trumpeter, John D'Earth.

Come on out of your winter hibernation and join us at one of these shows.
